

Tips to Get Brand-Name PRISTIQ

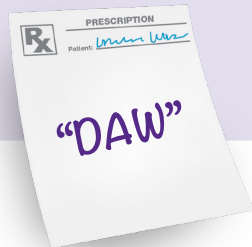

Some pharmacies may switch the branded medication your doctor prescribed for a generic version.

Use this tip sheet to help ensure you receive brand-name PRISTIQ and save on your prescription with the PRISTIQ Savings Card.*

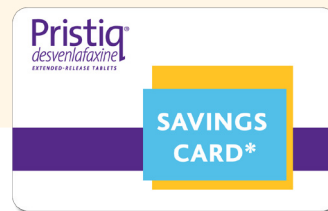

AT THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE

- Ask your doctor to write brand-name PRISTIQ on your prescription
- Ask your doctor to indicate "DAW" (Dispense As Written) or "No Substitutions," per your state's requirements on all of your PRISTIQ prescriptions

AT THE PHARMACY

- Request brand-name PRISTIQ from your pharmacist and present your PRISTIQ Savings Card
- Ask your pharmacist to note your preference for brand-name PRISTIQ, not the generic, for future fills

WHEN PICKING UP YOUR PRESCRIPTION

- Check your pills to make sure the shape and distinctive markings match one of the pills pictured—and also check that you've saved on your prescription
- Notify the pharmacist right away if you did not receive brand-name PRISTIQ or your savings

PRISTIQ is available by prescription only.
